Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities

- Notifies faculty member that student was found "in violation" and that the course-related sanction can now be invoked.
- Notifies faculty member’s department chairperson and college dean that the student was found “in violation”.

Graduate Program of Student

- Receives input from UG program and College of Graduate Studies as appropriate
- Delivers both the OSRR letter of conduct sanctions and the letter of program sanctions, if applicable, to the student either in person or via registered mail.

Undergraduate Program of Student

- Prepares letter detailing program sanctions and forwards letter to OSRR to be sent to the student.

Appeals Process

Student may appeal conduct findings and sanctions to the Provost or designee on the following basis (UCF Reg 5.010):

- Irregularities in fairness and stated procedures of the hearing that could have affected the outcome of the hearing.
- Discovery of new and significant information that could have affected the outcome of the hearing and that was not known or could not reasonably have been discovered and/or presented at the time of the hearing.
- The sanction(s) are extraordinarily disproportionate to the violation(s).

Student may also appeal sanctions imposed by the graduate program according to Golden Rule UCF-5.017.

NOTE: Grade appeals are not allowed when the grade is a result of academic misconduct.
