

APPENDIX A – SOTL CHANGES
RECOMMENDATIONS FROM THE FACULTY SENATE STEERING AD HOC COMMITTEE
ON AWARDS – MARCH 2016

I. Program Overview

The Office of Academic Affairs provides the funding for these awards. For the academic year 2014–2015, UCF will sponsor 10 awards for the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning (SoTL). In any given academic year, if any former recipients of SoTL awards leave their employment at UCF, the award(s) will be “recycled” as additional SoTL awards for the following academic year.

For the purpose of this award, SoTL is defined as follows: The Scholarship of Teaching and Learning (SoTL) uses discovery, reflection, and evidence-based methods to research effective teaching and student learning in higher education. These findings are peer reviewed and publicly disseminated in an ongoing cycle of systematic inquiry into teaching practices. This work benefits students and colleagues and is a source of personal renewal (UCF FCTL).

While the implementation of SoTL outcomes in individual classrooms and through curriculum development can result in teaching excellence and increased teaching effectiveness, this award recognizes not teaching excellence but scholarly efforts. Application materials should not include matter related to teaching unless it is part of a peer-reviewed publication, presentation, grant, or other peer-reviewed innovation (e.g., published software).

II. Funding

Regardless of their contract length (9 months or 12 months), awardees will receive a $5,000 base salary increase retroactive to August 8, 2014, the start of the 2014–2015 contract.

III. Eligibility Criteria

For the purposes of this award, faculty members are defined as professor, associate professor, assistant professor (including faculty members with clinical or research appointments), university librarian, associate university librarian, assistant university librarian, senior lecturer, associate lecturer, lecturer, senior instructor, associate instructor, instructor. Faculty members are considered “eligible” for the SoTL award if all the following criteria are met:

1. The employee must be on a full-time 9- or 12-month appointment.
2. The employee must have at least four years of continuous full-time service at UCF. Specifically, she or he must have been employed at UCF on or prior to August 8, 2010.
3. No faculty member may receive the award more than once every five years. Previous award recipients who received a SoTL increase that became effective August 8, 2010, or later are not eligible for a SoTL award this year. Employees who received the award in 2009–2010 or earlier are eligible to apply for the 2014–2015 award.

IV. Award Criteria

The criteria for evaluating applicants' portfolios include recognition of the value or impact of the applicant's SoTL efforts both within their core discipline and for the teaching and learning community as a whole in every case. Examples include:

1. Publication of papers that describe SoTL research or implementation of teaching approaches based on SoTL.
2. Grant and contract support for SoTL activities. The emphasis in this area should be on disseminated research rather than on program development and implementation.
3. Presentations of SoTL research results at academic or professional conferences and other forums within and outside UCF.
4. Dissemination of SoTL research through innovations such as patents and software program publication and distribution.
5. Peer recognition of SoTL research and creative efforts by way of awards and other honors. (This does not include teaching awards.)
6. Service as an editor or a peer reviewer for a SoTL journal or a journal where SoTL papers are regularly published.

V. Application Materials and Required Sections submitted digitally (numbers 1–7) and in a 1-inch Portfolio (number 8). [Or preferably all materials could be submitted digitally.]

If a nominee received the SoTL award at UCF in the past, accomplishments since the last award should be clearly identified. Items in progress (e.g., grant proposals, publications, or presentations still in review) should also be clearly indicated.

1. Title page.
2. Table of contents.
3. Nomination letter from the dean, director, chair, or a colleague written specifically in reference to this award. Self-nominations are also accepted. The letter should stress the nominee's achievements in dissemination of knowledge relating to SoTL and should not focus on teaching performance.

4. Applicant's definition of SoTL and description of SoTL research methodology/ies. This document should not be a teaching philosophy. (250 words maximum, 12-point font). Word count must be included.

5. List of the nominee's SoTL accomplishments during the award period (100 words maximum, 12-point font). Word count must be included. This list should include a short overview of the number of publications, grants, presentations, awards and honors, patents, software publications, and editorial efforts.

6. Abbreviated Curriculum Vitae (no more than 5 pages, 12-point font) focusing on the nominee's SoTL accomplishments, including publications, grants, presentations, awards, patents, software development and distribution, and editorial efforts. Each entry should be clearly identified as peer reviewed, editor reviewed, invited, etc. Optional information could include acceptance rates, citations, circulation rates, and audience details. Applicants are encouraged to include annotations that describe each included entry in such a way that readers can easily determine whether and how it meets the UCF definition of SoTL.

7. Narrative describing the impact of the applicant's SoTL research. This document should address the ways in which and the extent to which the applicant's SoTL research and creative activities have impacted teaching and learning outcomes at UCF and beyond (500 words maximum, 12-point font). Word count must be included.

8. Supporting Material: Evidence of SoTL accomplishments, including copies of book covers with tables of contents, book chapters, SoTL articles or other publications, executive summaries of grants and grant reports, documentation of awards related to SoTL, editorial board and review appointments, as well as other appropriate materials that provide evidence of SoTL accomplishments.

VI. Evaluation and Award Process

The award winners will be determined by a university-level committee consisting of one faculty member as defined in Section III elected for a two-year term from each of the colleges, one member from IT&R, and the executive director of the FCTL. The elected faculty members should have demonstrated SoTL-related accomplishments and should preferably be previous SOTL winners. All committee members shall be voting members for the purposes of these awards. Faculty candidates for the award are not eligible to serve on this committee. The executive director of the FCTL will convene the first meeting of the committee, at which the committee chair shall be elected. Each award winner will be invited to submit a SoTL-focused article for publication in the FCTL's Faculty Focus.
