

Resolution 2016-2017-9 Faculty Senate Bylaw Change, Governance in Academic Units

Whereas, the Faculty Senate Constitution contains Article VII. Governance in Academic Units, specifying that each academic unit of the university shall provide for non-administrative faculty representation in its governance; and

Whereas, the Bylaws do not provide details regarding governance in Academic Units; therefore

BE IT RESOLVED that the Bylaws of the Faculty Constitution be amended as follows to include a new Section IX. Governance in Academic Units with the Constitution Article VII automatically updated to reflect, as set forth in Senate Bylaws, Section IX:

SECTION IX. Governance in Academic Units

A. Operation and Bylaws

Each academic unit, and departments and schools whose leader holds an administrative appointment, must operate according to written bylaws approved by the unit's general faculty as defined in Bylaws Section I. Definition of Faculty.

B. Meetings

1. Meetings of Department/School faculty will be regularly called by and presided over by the leader. Their frequency will depend on the needs and usages of the units. At least one meeting per semester shall be held. Chairs and directors should meet at least monthly with the college dean. Meetings should run according to the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order, or other rules as specified in the unit's bylaws (note the quorum and recusal rules therein).
2. The faculty in a Department/School shall be entitled to call a special meeting upon presentation to the appropriate leader of such a request of one-third of the Department/School faculty. The special faculty meeting shall occur within five business days of the presented request.
3. Membership and Voting.
All general faculty should attend and participate in unit meetings. Unit bylaws will designate voting rights.
4. Records.
Proposed meeting agendas must be posted by the leader in advance of the meetings. Minutes must be circulated to the members before the next meeting and offered for approval at the next meeting. Agendas and approved minutes must be posted online in a manner accessible and easily navigable by all unit faculty.

C. Records

1. Except for records deemed confidential under law or university policy, leaders must have no unit records that are confidential from their own faculty.
2. Unit policies; budgets; formal plans; meeting agendas, minutes, and exhibits; committee records (including membership, agendas, minutes, and exhibits); and other public data relevant to unit members must be posted online in a manner accessible and easily navigable by all unit faculty.

D. Steering Committee

Each unit is strongly encouraged to have a steering or executive committee to advise the unit leadership.

Approved by the Faculty Senate Steering Committee August 11, 2016.

Approved by the Faculty Senate on October 20, 2016.
