

Annual Report for the University Research Council
Chair: Dr. Thomas Wan
Academic Year 2011-2012

1. Reviewed and selected the winners of the UCF In-House Grants for 2012: 52 applications.
2. Reviewed college finalists and selected the winner of the University Excellence in Research Award.
3. Review and selected the winners of the Burnett Honors College's Outstanding Undergraduate Research Awards (SMART Grants).
4. Reviewed and selected the finalists for the sabbatical awards for Center/institute investigators or researchers.
5. Reviewed the college-wide incentive plans for enhancing sponsored research productivity:
  - a. College of Education: Special financial incentives given to recipients of the federal grants;
  - b. College of Business: none;
  - c. College of Engineering and Computer Sciences: Financial incentives given to recipients of the federal grants;
  - d. College of Sciences: None;
  - e. College of Health and Public Affairs: an award of $2,500 for the first submission to federal grant over $100,000; an award of $2,500 for completion of the annual faculty research fellowship program;
  - f. College of Medicine: None