

Common Program Oversight Committee (CPOC)

Academic Year 2015-2016 Report

The committee was chaired by Dr. Elizabeth A. Dooley, Vice Provost for Teaching and Learning and Dean of the College of Undergraduate Studies.

During the year, four meetings were held. The committee conducted reviews, discussed the Diversity Selection Criteria and discussed the Unifying Theme as a Curriculum initiative.

Course Reviews

Gordon Rule Reviews

- 144 courses reviewed and approved
 - 4 deletions approved
 - 38 additions
 - 102 renewals
 - 231 current GR courses (25 lower level, 206 upper level)

Diversity Course Reviews

- 7 courses reviewed and approved
- 56 current Diversity courses

GEP Courses

- One title change:
 - From PHY 2048C Physics for Engineers and Scientists I
 - To PHY 2048C General Physics Using Calculus I

Diversity Requirement

In addition to the reviews, the committee held discussions about the Diversity Requirement and the need to re-visit the Diversity Selection Criteria in 2016-2017 and to also review the Cultural Competencies Document created by a UCF Committee.

Unifying Theme

The Committee was instrumental in generating ideas for a new Unifying Theme and soliciting feedback from various stakeholders. The group in 2016-2017 will review feedback and provide recommendations.