4. OLD BUSINESS

RESOLUTION 1992-1993-2 (REVISION #1)

Whereas, the acceptance of a tenure track position entails the commitment of an individual to perform to departmental, college, and university standards -- faculty may not move from a tenure track to an instructor's position (line) without a review by the departmental faculty.

5. LIAISONS' REPORTS FROM SENATE COMMITTEES:

- a) Personnel Committee concurs with current rules concerning letters for promotion to associate professor be mandatory. Personnel Committee consensus is that the practice should remain as is, i.e. mandatory for all promotions.
- b) Personnel Committee report on consideration of University Bookstore discounts.
- c) Personnel Committee suggestions of possibly changing the title of this committee to Faculty Development Committee.
- d) A draft of the "Review of Academic Administrators" has been submitted to the Personnel Committee and they find no problems with the proposal.
- e) Personnel Committee review of reserved parking for faculty review. What review process exists for increasing parking fees in general?

6. NEW BUSINESS

- 1) Review constitution changes which will be published in March 1993.
- 2) Resolution 1991-1992-13 - clarification of intent

3) RESOLUTION 1992-1993-7

Given the lack of faculty raises and increases in parking fees for the last three years, be it resolved that future increases in parking fees should not exceed the average mandated faculty and staff salary increases in any particular year.

Submitted by Personnel Committee.

4) RESOLUTION 1992-1993-8

Colleges within the University of Central Florida have an option to allow American Sign Language to fulfill the University Foreign Language graduation requirement.

Submitted by the Undergraduate Policy and Curriculum Committee.

5) RESOLUTION 1992-1993-9

Be it resolved that the University of Central Florida authorize the grade letters of A, B, C, and No Credit F, for ENC 1101 and ENC 1102.

Submitted by the Undergraduate Policy and Curriculum Committee.

6) Survey on effectiveness of faculty government.

7) Grade for no-shows.
