

Common Program Oversight Committee
Minutes

January 8, 2014 – 9:00 AM – MH 395E

Present: B. Kinsey, D. Hitchcock, E. Wardle, F. Logiudice, J. Kaplan, M. Hampton, M. Murphey, S. Saleh, S. Ricci, T. Kaufman, E. Main, A. Chase, H. Martin

1. M. Hampton called the meeting to order at 9:01 AM.
2. December 11th Minutes: Unanimously approved
3. Review of MGF 1107 for GEP 2015
 - a. The committee approved changes to prerequisites for the course.
 - b. A. Chase and H. Martin will talk to Math Dept. about the committee's concern about the lack of detail in the syllabus.
4. Gordon Rule Update
 - a. Three committee members still need to email in their review of courses.
 - b. The committee finds it difficult to evaluate some of the syllabi because of how vague the assignments are. They would like to discuss how to avoid this confusion in future years.
5. New Issues
 - a. A. Chase discussed the new GEP and the possibility of limiting departments to 2 or 3 courses. The committee discussed the implications of limiting courses because many departments house various disciplines (ex. Philosophy houses courses in humanities, religion, and philosophy)
 - b. E. Wardle recommended having John Sacher from the Dept. of History attend the next CPOC meeting.
6. The committee adjourned at 9:34 AM.
